Re: MUR 4880

Dear Mr. Turley:

This letter is in response to the document submitted by Mr. R.M. "Cook" Barela in connection with MUR 4816 on February 6, 1999. Mr. Barela's submission actually is a response to a complaint filed against him by a political opponent. He is attempting to convert his response into a simultaneous complaint against various individuals and organizations he imagines are part of an international conspiracy. However, his submission fails to identify any conduct or activity by the American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee that violates the Federal Election Campaign Act, or any other law for that matter. It consists of a litany of ill-conceived conspiracy theories and false and unsubstantiated accusations that are highly offensive to American-Arabs.

Mr. Barela's submission fails to meet the fundamental legal requirements for a valid complaint, and, indeed, falls so far short in this regard that it is frivolous and an abuse of the administrative process.

Sincerely,

William J. Farah
